

I am a GP and a family doctor. I believe that good quality work cannot be achieved by rushing, so

A GP is the ideal person to look after the global treatment plan of the patient – co-ordinating the d

I consider the patient as a psychosomatic entity, and I encourage them to adopt a healthy lifestyle

I specialize in muscle- and joint-pain. The current name for these pains is 'myofascial' pain. I have l